TRHF Community Resource Directory 2026

Chapter 15: Low-Cost Internet & Technology

Case Manager Edition

T-Mobile Project 10 Million

Free internet access and hotspot support for eligible K–12 students.

Verizon Forward

Discounted home internet service for qualifying low-income households.

AT&T; Access

Low-cost home internet service for income-qualified households.

Cox Connect2Compete & ConnectAssist

Affordable internet programs for students and households participating in qualifying assistance programs.

Xfinity Internet Essentials

Low-cost internet service and discounted computers for eligible households.

iFoster Technology Program

Computers, devices, and technology support for foster youth and caregivers.

PCs for People

Low-cost refurbished computers and internet options for qualifying households.

Windstream Lifeline Program

Discounted phone and internet service for Lifeline-qualified households.

Tulsa City-County Library

Free public computers, Wi-Fi, printing, and technology training.

Quick Technology Reference

Need low-cost internet? Start with Cox Connect2Compete, Internet Essentials, AT&T; Access, or Verizon Forward. Need a computer? Check PCs for People or iFoster.